Statement No 1

IX International Academic and Technical Conference

ARCHBUD 2019

subject of the conference

PROBLEMS OF CONTEMPORARY ARCHITECTURE AND CONSTRUCTION

10-13 September 2019, Zakopane

Conference organisers:

UNIVERSITY OF ECOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT
FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE

would like to kindly inform you that
IX International Academic and Technical Conference
ARCHBUD 2019
will be held in Zakopane on 10th – 13th September 2019

subject of the conference

PROBLEMS OF CONTEMPORARY ARCHITECTURE AND CONSTRUCTION

This conference will be devoted to theoretical and practical problems of contemporary architecture and construction, with emphasis on the following issues:

- pluralism in architecture,
- future of regionalism in the architecture of the age of globalisation,
- economic values of space in architectural projects,
- design, arrangement and maintenance of landscape architecture objects,
- structure of the city and modern demands of the users and residents – problems of transformation of buildings and conurbations,
- causes and consequences of the interchangeability of the city structure – elements of functional and special transformations of “urban non-users”,
- issues of ecology and energy efficiency in construction; modern materials technologies,
- issues related to shaping and calculation of structures,
- issues related to shaping environmental parameters in residential and office interiors; building installations
- BIM (Building Information Modelling) - digitalization of processes implemented during the building's life cycle. with particular emphasis on the design and construction period

Objects of the conference:

- presentation of creative achievements of architects and academics; discussion on the contemporary form of architecture and urbanism,
- presentation of academic and technical achievements in the field of existing and new construction technologies.

We would like to invite both specialists and academics from home and abroad, educators of future designers, as well as practicing architects, urban planners, maintenance and construction engineers and builders.

As part of the conference, problem-focused and detailed papers (ordered by conference organisers) will be delivered. The submitted detailed papers, upon evaluation by the reviewers, will qualify for presentation as a conference lecture/discussion or a poster session.

Summaries of papers, including names of authors, place of employment, title of the paper and its contents – of no more than one A4 page – should be sent by 31.03.2019 to the address of the conference or by email: archbud@wseiz.pl

The contents of the papers will be published in conference materials (in electronic format).

After the conference, papers meeting the scientific criteria and selected by the Academic Committee will be printed in a reviewed and graded publications, among others of: Mazovia Regional Planning Office in Warsaw – MAZOVIA; MATERIAŁY BUDOWLANE, BUILDER and IZOLACJE.

Full versions of papers should be sent by 15.06.2019 to the address of the conference or by email: archbud@wseiz.pl

Requirements regarding the form of the paper may be found at the WSEiZ website www.wseiz.pl under the web page: <http://www.wseiz.pl/pl/uczelnia/konferencje>.

The total (gross) cost of participation in the conference, including accommodation in a double room, amounts to PLN 1250, or PLN 1450 with accommodation in a single room. Payments should be made by 25.08.2019, directly at the recreational complex or to the bank account indicated below.
